SPECIFIC: Dr. Fritz WULSCHNER, aka WULSCHNER, Former SS Dentist

REF: WIA-602

- On 16 December 1954, Col. Thomas M. MEYER, U.S. Army Attache in Lima, Peru, furnished to Station Lima the following additional information regarding subject which he had obtained from source of referenced information:

Before World War II, Dr. Fritz WULSCHNER was the principal agent for the Gestapo in Lima. When the German Embassy was closed during World War II, Dr. WULSCHNER was able to save all secret papers of the Embassy and later received a decoration for this task.

After returning to Berlin, WULSCHNER lived at Giesenberg St. No. 12, a residence owned by Martin BUEHNIG's mistress, a Swedish Countess. He worked in the SS with a Yugoslav girl named MELITA who helped him get out of Germany after the war.

WULSCHNER studied dentistry in Mexico and is married to the daughter of a Mexican general. At present he is residing at Avenida Larco 762, Miraflores, Lima, Peru.

- In connection with WULSCHNER, Col. MEYER's source indicated that one Mariana MAUP, who currently resides in Chacabuco, Peru, lived next door to WULSCHNER in Berlin.
